PASTORAL PONDERINGS

“And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three;
and the greatest of these is love.” 1 Corinthians 13: 13

February is a strange month. It may have 28 days or 29 days. And though it may continue to chill us with winter weather, we know that it is now just a few weeks (not months) before warmer weather springs forth (depending on what the groundhog says). And right in the middle of this month is the day we call “Valentine’s Day,” a day to celebrate love.

Love is the greatest of God’s gifts. Faith and hope are great gifts, too. But they can be faked. People can claim to have them, but only to manipulate others. But love is different. Love is pure. True love cannot be faked.

I love what C. S. Lewis wrote: “Do not waste time bothering whether you love your neighbor; act as if you did. As soon as we do this, we find one of the great secrets. When you are behaving as if you loved someone you will presently come to love him.”

God has loved us with a pure and generous and unconditional love. May we receive that gracious gift from God, and may we extend that gift to our neighbors as well. May we practice love in all our relationships and may we put our love in action.

See you in worship!

Pastor John

Extra thoughts:

At our recent Annual Congregational Meeting, a motion was approved to extend a call to Pastor Josh Schunk. Should he accept the call, and all indications are that he will, he would begin serving as your new pastor in June. That means you are stuck with me through May.

Pastor Schunk has a unique style of leading worship. Over the years, I have learned that every pastor has his/her own style – though there are some who might say I have no style. But the important thing is the proclamation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I trust that the Holy Spirit has been involved in this call process, and I look forward to seeing all the good that God has in store for this congregation with your new pastor.

A Pastoral Message from Bishop Hagmaier

Siblings in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in the name of the Triune God!

I must write to you now with a heavy heart and profound sadness, but with a sure hope in Christ alone. I can no longer remain silent in the face of overwhelming presidential executive orders thrusting our nation into chaos and willfully widening the rift between people. While I could steward my fears leading up to the presidential election and inauguration, I am no longer willing.

My mentor bishop, Bishop Emeritus Jon Anderson, told me at my installation that I have one job: always to protect the Gospel. Therefore, here I stand now, and I can do no other. Lutherans, specifically ELCA Lutherans, understand the Gospel as the good news of God's unconditional love and saving grace revealed through Jesus Christ's life, death, and resurrection. This news frees us to live in faith, love, and service to others. Therefore, to vilify immigrants but validate insurrectionists, reject climate care but rejoice in fossil fuels, seek retribution for political opponents and not help the poor and oppressed is in direct opposition to who we are as baptized children of God and as members of the body of Christ.

I ask you not to hear me as arrogant or haughty; I speak sincerely as a fellow sinner who needs mercy. Nevertheless, I have deep concerns for our nation's soul and people of faith. Admittedly, these concerns arise from my story, deeply rooted in my German heritage. I am a child of World War II survivors growing up in West Germany during the Cold War era, a time when the German Church wrestled with the fact that because of devout Christians who were confused about the Savior, 70-85 million lost their lives in one of the largest genocides in history. Making sense of such a heinous and atrocious crime still haunts the German nation to this day.

Growing up in such an environment set the table for the Reformer Martin Luther, pastor-theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and scholar Karl Barth to sit with me at home, school, and church. These three men are steady companions on my journey. And when they drop by, I am always a bit nervous around them, rightly so, since they have some gravitas to them. They talk about worldly powers, the church, and faith from challenging experiences. Simultaneously, they speak with loving conviction. I often sat listening to them, wondering if I ever had to be like them someday. And the answer always remained the same; "You'll find out, and you'll know when your time has come."

As I lead the Synod through these times, I will adhere to my call to protect the Gospel with my life, words, and deeds, and I invite you to do the same.

Journeying Together in Christ with you,

The Rev. Constanze Hagmaier
Bishop of the South Dakota Synod, ELCA

Therefore, we are asking all parents or guardians to come into the church to pick up their children after Wednesday night's BVLC Kids and Confirmation classes. Thank you for your cooperation.

MEALS ON WHEELS

Beaver Valley is in need of your help to deliver meals to local residents here in Brandon for the month of March 2025. We share this responsibility with 5 other local churches.

Active Generations will deliver the meals to the Splitrock Apartments at 1100 Teakwood Street Bandon, SD around 11:30 am. Red and Blue meal bags are dropped off inside the entry of the Apartment Building. Meals are delivered in the apartment complex first followed by the rest of the city.

Depending upon the number of clients receiving meals, it takes approximately 1 hour for delivery. The client list and addresses are clear and accurate.

It is a very rewarding experience. Delivering is easier with two people each day, one to drive and the other to deliver the meal to the client. Please sign up on the MOW calendar, which will be posted in February for the March Delivery. The central calendar is on the lower-level bulletin board. Choose your dates that work with your schedule.

If you have not driven or delivered before, you need to fill out a volunteer application with your personal information. Beth Flier 605-261-3796 This form is necessary for liability for Active Generations. Please text or call. I will get the form to you.

Adult Forum Series - Lutheranism 101

Beginning Sunday, February 23, Pastor John will lead Adult Forums at 11:00 am. Grab a cup of coffee and have some friendly conversation in the fellowship hall after worship, and then come join us for 30-45 minutes as we explore "Lutheranism 101" in a three-week series. Everyone is welcome, and those who have more recently joined our congregation are especially encouraged to participate.

Lutheranism 101

Faith Community Nurse

B/P screening was offered early in January with a limited number of participants. I am asking all congregational members to consider what would be in your area of interest.

I will reach out to the new Pastor when he or she has been chosen.

Suggestions for additional offerings include a repeat offering of A Matter of Balance classes, an Advanced course on balance and exercise, an education offering in early Spring dealing with Diabetes from the manager at Avera's Diabetes Department, blood pressure, and an education workshop on weight management.

I will be absent for February and part of March. This time away will allow us to create more concrete plans.

Respectfully,
Sue

PRAYER GARDEN UPDATE

You may have noticed a couple of easels have been placed in the Church. These will help you see the vision for the outdoor worship space and watch the progression of the fundraising portion of the project. As of January 28, we are 24% of the way toward our Phase 1 goal of $26,000. Thank you so much for your generous support! Our Phase 2 goal is $6,000, which would then completely fund the project, including benches and stones. As a reminder, if you give in memory or honor of someone, we do have special cards you can use to share that information with the person or their family. You can find these in our display, or by stopping into the office and picking one up from Jacqui. Please reach out to any task force member with questions. We are all dreaming of spring and the beauty that is to come. In the meantime, stay warm!

Dear Beaver Valley Members,

As my time as Council President comes to an end, I want to take a moment to express my many thanks for the prayers and support I have received over the past two years. It has been an honor to serve in this role, and I am so thankful for this congregation's support, dedication, and faithfulness. While I am stepping down as President, I look forward to continuing to serve Beaver Valley in new ways.
